

Give a day that will last a lifetime.

77,845 people in the Dallas area have mental retardation. Unbelievably, 92 percent of them receive no state assistance. One in 10 families are directly affected by someone with a mental disability. It is reported that 64 percent of children who suffered from abuse have a disability.

12,500 individuals are helped each year by The Arc of Dallas.
Tens of thousands more need our help!
